Straight Boy: A Short Story (Straight Guys Book 0.5) By Alessandra Hazard

Young, blond and handsome, Sage attracts unwanted attention in prison. When his cellmate offers him protection, Sage accepts the offer, even though he doesn't trust the guy. Little does he know how much it will change his life.

When he's released from prison, Sage finds himself needing and wanting things he shouldn't want. Sage is straight. He is. He has a girlfriend. What happened in prison stayed in prison—or so Sage tells himself.

Until he meets his former cellmate again. Xavier. The guy he hates and craves.

This short novelette contains graphic language and very steamy M/M scenes. For mature audiences. ~12, 500 words. Book #0.5 in the Straight Guys series.
