Why is deficit spending a good idea? And how is the debate used to widen the gap between rich and poor?

Why has the term "class warfare" become acceptable political discourse?

Why does Newt Gingrich alienate the elite?

Why do free markets destroy competition?

What is it about the rise of militias that signals the possibilities for positive change? Insights into Chomsky's Political Philosophy:

Why is this supporter of anarchist ideals in favor of strengthening the federal government?

Review

'Over the course of some thirty years of dissent, his tireless effort has undoubtedly made a major personal contribution in exposing capitalist hypocrisy. ... To read any book of conversations with Chomsky is to connect with a great and humane mind ... We cannot help but be infected by Chomsky's energy and alertness. The point is that to read someone this awake is to become a little more awake ourselves' Resurgence' Class Warfare ... is [a] very readable introduction to the work, philosophy and personality of Chomsky.'
