Creating Dynamic Schools Through Mentoring Coaching and Collaboration

By Judy F Carr

How can you create a school environment where everyone--staff and students alike--will become an active, engaged learner? How can you develop a collegial school culture that will improve morale, expand professional opportunities, and raise student achievement? How can you make a difference in your school?

Judy F. Carr, Nancy Herman, and Douglas E. Harris show how to transform your school into a dynamic learning community. Drawing on decades of experience and success, these former educators and trusted consultants provide expert guidance on

- * Identifying potential leaders and fulfilling their professional ambitions
- * Selecting coaches and strengthening professional development capabilities
- * Recognizing and maximizing the talents and resources of veteran and beginning teachers
- * Establishing a self-renewing, satisfying mentor program
- * Designing and running effective study groups

Whether you are a teacher leader, district supervisor, or principal, these valuable and practical strategies will help you build and sustain collaborative relationships in your school--and embark on a shared journey toward mutual support, continuous learning, and higher achievement.
