Editorial Review

Review

When I bought the first book I had a lot of reservations about this series. I'm not a fan of mermaids at all but I went into this with an open mind and walked out of it with a blown one!

-Amazingly Fantastic, Amazon Reviewer

Finished this book last night. Am kinda of sad though as now I must face reality!!! I am hoping for another book as I really want to know more about the characters who I fell I know! The conclusion was epic, filling all the blanks I wanted it too and swelling my heart with love. What a rollercoaster these books have been! What a journey!! well done S.K Munt, your elegant use of words is admirable.

-Jillian, Amazon Customer

All 3 books in this saga is so well written that sometimes I forgot that these were fictional characters. I loved the fact that the author didn't favour her leading lady or any of the characters. I would love them, then hate them, root for them and be disappointed in their actions (see! Forgetting again that this is fiction!)

-Amy, Amazon Customer

If this is the first that you have heard of The Fairytail Saga, by all means, go and read The Marked Ones and Three Rings first. The reader will know firsthand the kind of story that S.K. Munt is capable of spinning. If, however, the reader is familiar the first two books, this reviewer strongly suggests that one find a comfy chair or sofa, a bit of something to eat, a few tissues and prepare to submerge themselves in this story.

-Howard parsons, Amazon Reviewer

I seriously didn't think it could happen but Heads or Tails, book 3 was even better then the first two books in the series. I felt like I was personally invested in this story.

From the Author
