The series is aimed to help adopted children from China, for people who are ready to adopt children from China, and adoption organizations to learn Chinese and Chinese culture. they can be also served as reading materials for Chinese learners and people who are interested in Chinese culture. The high quality of the paintings are also of high artistic values and can be served as good reference materials for artists, including painters, drawers and art designers. It can also help all English speakers who are interested in China to understand Chinese history and culture.

The story of Mulan is very popular in the United States, attributable to the production of the movie by Disney. The story in the movie is highly vigorous and moving, full of imaginations. Thanks to the production of Disney, almost everyone in the world knows Mulan. Here we are presenting the original version of the story of Mulan, which was depicted in a well-known poem called "The Mulan Poem". This beautiful poem is very popular in China and is loved by all Chinese people and is in the Chinese textbooks. Here we can appreciate the original story of Mulan, which is no less interesting and moving than the movie version. From here you will find out the true story of Mulan, and the authentic version of the legendary and brave girl. She is beautiful, filial to her parents, loyal to the country and the emperor, courageous and is loved by her family and companions. Yet she did not care about her gain and fame, and just wanted to serve her parents and the country. So she returned to home, giving up the high-rank awards by the emperor. The paintings are of great quality and artistic value, and presents the beautiful girl in beautiful scenes. We believe you will love the story and the paintings. It is especially suitable for kids. The story and the arts have no boundary of country, nation or ethics.

This book should be read in landscape mode.
